Potentate's notes

Thomas Thompson, Potentate

Greetings Nobles,

I would like to share some thoughts on the importance of agreeing to disagree and respecting each other's opinions and views, especially in today's world where differences in perspectives seem to divide us more than ever.

Friendship is something that I truly value, and I believe that one of the reasons it takes to endure is our ability to have open and honest discussions, even when we may not see eye to eye on certain topics. It is crucial for us to remember that it is okay to have differing opinions and views. In fact, it is these differences that make our conversations rich and thought-provoking.

However, it is equally important for us to respect each other's viewpoints even when we disagree. Respect is the foundation of any healthy relationship, and it is what allows us to engage in meaningful dialogue without causing harm to our friendship. By respecting each other's opinions, we create a safe space where we feel comfortable sharing our thoughts and ideas openly.

I believe that staying respectful, even in the face of disagreement, is key to supporting our friendship. It is okay for us to have enthusiastic discussions and debates if we do so with kindness and empathy. We must remember that our words have power, and it is possible to express our views without belittling or hurting each other.

At the end of the day, our friendship is more valuable than any difference of opinion. Let us always remember to prioritize our relationship over any disagreement we may have. Let us continue to listen to each other, learn from each other, and grow together, even when our views diverge. I cherish my friendship's and I am grateful for the bond that we share. Let us commit to respecting each other's opinions and remain respectful and remain friends

Warm regards and appreciation,
Thomas Thompson

Nobles all,

“What come ye here to do?” Ever heard that question? The answer(s): To Learn. To subdue my passions. To improve myself in Masonry. These are (3) very distinct answers that should give each of us pause and make us remember who we are and why we are.

As we enter the 3rd quarter, there is no question it has been a whirlwind of activities, and a positive and productive year. Moslem Shrine is solidly on track to cementing a great future for everyone involved.

To keep this great pace going is to continue to change for the positive and to keep up with the times, especially in this ever-changing culture we live in.

Change...most people by virtue of human nature tend to not really embrace change, not at first, especially if it takes them out of their comfort zone or as the cliché goes; “out of their swim lane.”

Changes can be concerning and downright scary, but as we all eventually come to realize, changes often turn out for the better. Why is that you think? It is because the ones putting the efforts towards making changes and the ones accepting the changes adhere to those three answers...as we all should.

In January of 2023, Moslem bought (2) acres of property on Grand River Ave. in Novi. The plans for those (2) acres, aside from it being a sound investment, was to potentially see them serve as the location for a new home. These plans were admirable and done so in good faith and with the best interests of Moslem in mind. However, as we now know, that property did not pan out as the site for Moslem's new home, but more of an “investment” for us...but was buying that property considered a failed attempt to make Moslem better? ABSOLUTELY NOT! It was a sound investment then and it is a GREAT investment now as things have changed for the positive and continue to do so!

The (2) structures on the property have been removed (all done so and approved by the city under proper, legal channels), thus increasing the property value! The zoning for all properties on the north side of Grand River Ave. has also changed, adding more value to our property. That, along with the fact that the property is now clear of structures, will make it more appealing to interested investors. Once we sell it, (and it is currently for sale) the profits will go towards helping Moslem continue to build and grow.

Moving Mighty Moslem forward...it is not what WE do, it is what we do TOGETHER as we continue to learn, continue to subdue our passions and continue improve ourselves in Masonry.

Sincerely and Fraternally, Gary Lewandowski

David Henderson, Assistant Rabban

Dear Nobles All,

As we enter this new phase of Moslem Shriners growth, with new members, new Temple new friends and acquaintances I would like to expound on a few things. This is a perfect opportunity to build new relationships as well as strengthen our existing ones. To advance our unity and fellowship amongst ourselves and our friends within and outside of Shrinedom. With a new Temple will come new events and things to do. While we shouldn't ignore what we have planned and are doing we should also be able to grow.

Parade season is in full swing and even if we don't belong to a parading unit we still can attend these events in staging or along the path of the parade. There are many opportunities in possibly riding in one of the childcare vehicles if they are present or sometimes even parading with a unit that is looking for another active member to join in. We can even bring the families and friends to enjoy watching these rolling festivities as well as our neighboring communities celebrations.

We recently completed our First Annual Corn Hole Tournament which was a success. This like some of the other events this may not be your game but they still can be a great day out with our fellow Nobles. No one is going to make you play but you can if you want to. There are a lot of people willing to help you find a way to have a little fun. Thank you Illustrious Sir Tommy and David Goldsmith for a fun day out.

There are many other ways to have some Shriner fun: the Fireworks Cruise, the Imperial Session, and Summer Sportsmans Raffle. Illustrious Sir Mike and Don are always looking for a hand if you can attend. Then there is the Mighty Moslem Summer Picnic and the Michigan State Fair with the Moslem Shrine Circus. Followed by several more parades and Great Lakes Shrine Association Convention.

Thank You Nobles All,
Moslem Assistant Rabban

General Chairman's notes

Jeff Geske, General Chairman

I have been a member of Moslem Shrine since May of 2007 and was fortunate enough to be Potentate in 2019. Recently, it has come to my attention that I am considered by some to be "one of the old guys" which, to be honest, I find to be both an honor and extremely amusing.

However, from an "old guys" perspective, it appears that ever since we collectively went through the experiences of Covid, the discontent or frustration of being a Moslem Shriner is more prevalent than in pre-Covid times. So, I would like to share my thoughts on this....

General Chairman's notes

One of the most valuable lessons that I learned very early on was that being a Shriner is not easy and quite frankly, I don't believe that it is meant to be. One of the main tenets taught to every new Shriner is that you are asked to give freely of your Spirit, Time, Talent, and Means to the fraternity and to Shriners Children's. Us "old guys" know that the implications found within those tenets are actually very complicated and can be deceptive in their simplicity of wording. It is a financial burden. It is time that is taken away from friends and loved ones. It may add a degree of strain to relationships. It may lead to increases in stress and anxiety, a feeling of being excluded or ignored. It may lead to conflicts with either a group or an individual, a feeling of inadequacy, jealousy, at times it makes you both angry and sad. Sometimes it may feel like there is no value in being a Shriner – and that is just to name a few...

When you look at these issues, regardless of the level that you have been or may now be experiencing, the model points to a very simple fact: the Shrine is Family. Albeit somewhat larger than a traditional nuclear family, the family dynamic is there. Every individual within a family experiences happiness, sadness, conflict, satisfaction, dissatisfaction, elation, and disappointment directed either internally or externally. While it is unfortunate that not every issue may be favorably addressed or overcome, it is the dedication to Family that is the cornerstone for any member of the Shrine to be content and for Moslem to move forward.

There is a common idiom amongst Masons and Shriners that states "the more you put into it, the more you will get out of it." Personally, I can state without hesitation that is entirely true. While I will freely admit that I have not seen eye-to-eye with everyone, with decisions made or directions taken that has impacted Moslem over the years, I still would not trade my Shrine experience for anything. Again, Family.

I can summarize my personal opinions in dealing with issues and/or discontent within Moslem in lessons that I have learned and note, they are in no particular order. It is entirely up to you to find value in them or to cast them aside:

1. The majority of Shriners will aid you on your path if you ask them for help. There is a huge pool of knowledge and resources within Moslem Shrine that simply goes either unused, undervalued, or ignored. Never be afraid or ashamed to reach out.
2. Think for yourself. Gather all the relevant information available before you make a final decision on any issue regardless of what the underlying concern may be.
3. If you have an issue with someone or something, address it. Don't wait for someone else to do it for you as it will likely never happen, and the discontent will only increase over time. Hopefully, the issue may be resolved to everyone's satisfaction.
4. If there is a role within the Shrine that interests you, then make your desires known and either volunteer or apply for it. Don't wait for someone to ask you to do it as the opportunity may slip away.
5. Challenge yourself. Pick a personal goal at one, five, and ten year increments and strive for it. You will be amazed at what you can accomplish, and the satisfaction can be immense.
6. The Divan's roll is to not only secure the future of Moslem Shrine and its membership but, to support each Noble on their individual path. Always remember that they are there to support you just as much as they are asking you to support them.

General Chairman's notes

7. If you don't like the direction that Moslem is going, there is an election every year for a position on the Divan. Compete for a spot and have a voice within the Temple leadership. Trying to find a workaround to the process or trying to impact the process from the sidelines will likely fail and it may ultimately cast you in an unfavorable light.
8. Know the bylaws – Temple, Unit, Club, Shriners International, and Hospital.
9. Every Noble has the right to officially criticize actions taken or decisions made that they may feel strongly against. However, along with that criticism, offer an alternative or solution to your concerns as you may have thought of a path no one else has.
10. If there is an activity that you enjoy but the Shrine does not officially offer it, then start a new Club or Unit. All it takes is a handful of like-minded Nobles to get it going.
11. The rumor mill is more than likely to be wrong.
12. Do everything in your power to keep your word. If you cannot, regardless of the circumstances, it is your responsibility to explain why.
13. Try and leave your pride and ego at the door. Personally, much easier said than done....
14. Communication and networking are vitally important. There are over two hundred Shrine Temples, get to know some of the members from other Temples during your travels or at various Shrine events.
15. Visit a Shrine Hospital whenever the opportunity presents itself. It can be a life changing event.
16. Titles can be impressive or even admired but, ultimately it all boils down to the character of the Noble wearing the fez.
17. Get your Lady involved. While this is a fraternity, the support of the Ladies, either individually or in groups, is critical for Moslem's success. Never let them forget that....
18. Surround yourself with friends that you trust. If you have questions or concerns, listen to their advice and counsel as they will likely see things from a viewpoint that you have either overlooked or ignored.
19. Find someone to mentor. You likely had one so, share the experience. You both will win in the end.
20. It's not easy because Family is not easy.

My conclusion is simple, the path chosen by any Shriner is unique and there will be discontent along the way. However, it is important to remember that these issues can be overcome either alone or with the help of Family. Ultimately, that is all that matters, and the decision is entirely up to you - just don't give up.

Yours In The Faith,
Jeff Geske - Past Potentate – 2019

The New Moslem Shrine Temple

The new Moslem Shrine Temple in Farmington Hills is progressing steadily towards completion. Dedicated Nobles have contributed over 500 volunteer hours, allowing us to open the business office and meeting rooms. Outdated office furniture has been replaced with modern alternatives.

Currently, two spacious meeting rooms are available for immediate use by our units, clubs, and Ladies groups upon request through the Shrine office. We are now focusing on enhancing the social areas of the building. Plans include a 2,000 sq ft social room featuring a 24-foot bar and large screen TVs. Additionally, the rear of the building will feature a 5,000+ sq ft room with high ceilings and a stage, perfect for hosting events such as our renowned meat raffles and more. A small commercial kitchen will also be installed.

After the 4th of July holiday, demolition of several walls will commence to expand the room sizes. Our architect is finalizing construction drawings required by the City of Farmington for approval to begin construction of the social rooms. While there is no strict timeline for completion, we are committed to steady progress and aim to stay under budget. The Divan recently hosted the first Stated Business Meeting in the pre-demo hall, which was well received. As Nobles toured the premises, they could envision the building's promising future. We are pleased to have initiated ten new Nobles who were fezzed in the "fishbowl" meeting room, witnessed by dozens of Nobles.

Looking ahead, this summer will be filled with exciting events at the Shrine, including an afterglow following the Summer Sportsman's Raffle on July 20th and the Shrine Family Picnic on August 3rd.

We are also planning a building dedication ceremony and open house with the Most Worshipful Grand Master, with the date to be determined.

JUST CLOWNING AROUND!!!!

Good Day Nobles,

Summer is upon us and your favorite band of nincompoops is out and about doing what we do best! What is that you ask? Well...I didn't know you were going to ask a question. I wasn't prepared. Let me think a minute....Hmm. Oh yeah, now I remember...We are out there representing Moslem Shrine Temple in a positive way, like the good Shriners that we are! The Moslem Shrine Clown Unit is very visible and participates in each parade, the Circus, and several special events throughout the year which helps put the spotlight on our important organization and its philanthropy, Shriners Children's Hospitals.

So far this year we have participated in the Lincoln Park and Sterling Heights parades, and we have a few more on the calendar this summer, and even into early fall. We have a few other special events lined up over the summer which will keep us in the public eye, but our shining moment, or Momento Splendente as we'll prefer to call it, will of course be this year's Shrine Circus at the Michigan State Fair. A recent poll conducted by us suggests that most people actually attend the State Fair just to see us. Hmmph. Interesting. We hope to see you and your families under the Big Top this year as well!

Have you considered becoming a Clown but didn't know how? I have good news for you, it is easier than you think. All you have to do is reach out to us, or come to a Unit meeting, and we will help get you on the pathway to a prestigious, elegant, refined, and dignified life ...UH WAIT A MINUTE, that's a lie. This is a Clown Unit not a Finishing School. Buffoonery is all you will actually learn from us. However, you will be a buffooner with the finest of buffoonists whomever buffooned – that right there is worth the price of admission alone! But wait, there's more !!! You could also become a member of one of Moslem's oldest and most revered Units, the Clown Unit. Our Unit of dedicated Shriners has been serving the philanthropy and enjoying the fraternity of Moslem Temple since 1966. I would venture to say that some of the finest Shriners in the history of Moslem Temple have been members of the Clown Unit. We would welcome any Noble willing to give it a try.

Enjoy the summer Nobles. Be sure to support and participate in the many great events YOUR Shrine Temple has planned for summer of 2024!

Fraternally,
Toejam

“We Ride So Children Can Walk”

The Motor Corp is looking for new riding members to join Moslem Shriners elite parade unit.

The Motor Corp Unit has changed our motorcycle requirements regarding the Harley-Davidson motorcycles. You must have a late Model Arctic White Ultra Classic. You can buy a new or used motorcycle as long as it meets the Unit's requirements. The Motor Corp Unit used to purchase a new Harley-Davidson every two (2) years. That requirement is not the case today.

The Motor Corp Unit will teach you (and practice) our parade and competition maneuvers.

The Moslem Shriners' Motor Corp has over sixty (60) years of riding tradition. Come ride with us.

Contact Unit Director Gary Kolwaski at 248-842-6059 for information relating to date, time and location of meetings.
